Cathy Beckley, SNJM, MSW, MDiv~~I have been a Spiritual Director for many years with a variety of persons and thoroughly enjoy it. I have a background in the Enneagram, Ignatian Spirituality, and 12 Step work.

Spiritual companioning has been a rich learning mode of how God cares for each so personally. Time in Latin America, work in the Salinas Valley, and the changes and shifts in community life--all these bring challenge and hope in my life. I look forward to sacred time at the ocean.

Jill Holseth MSW, M.Div. Diploma in Art of Spiritual Directin, SFTS~~For me, watching the ocean is always a beautiful metaphor for God's Presence and Love. It is the constancy of the waves, and the unceasing movement, that gets my attention. I trust the constancy of God's Love; always present, always flowing, always in formation. I find Spirit's movement to be 'gentle', but even still, She is unrelenting Her desire to be in relationship with us. At almost 64 years of age, both professionally and personally, I have been acquainted with considerable death, grief, loss, illness, and accompanying injustice. When I accompany another as a Director, it is for me, a process of 'co-discernment'. The limitless ways in which the Holy One engages each person individually is astonishing! As such, I know that the 'True Director' is the Holy Spirit, and together, we work to 'gather and glean' the 'Living Wisdom' at work.
